

THE SWAN INN

The Swan Inn freehouse is a traditional 17th century inn on the banks of the River Soar, in the village of Mountsorrel, Leicestershire.

Originally two terraced cottages, this Grade II listed building has been transformed over the years, built in brick and Mountsorrel granite, with the rear wing still showing the original timber frames.

With roaring log fires in winter, the Swan Inn combines the hospitality of the traditional inn with real ales, fine wines, spirits, soft drinks and superb cuisine that can be enjoyed inside or out in the garden. We serve cask conditioned real ales from Theakstons and Ruddles breweries, as well as regularly changing guest beers.

Hot and cold food is available lunchtimes and evenings Monday-Saturday, with an a-la-carte menu served, and a traditional 3 course roast lunch on Sundays.

We have a varied menu which is changed weekly, including game dishes and vegetarian dishes. All our food is freshly prepared and cooked to order in our kitchens. Special diets can be catered for or if you have a favourite food for a special occasion we are always happy to provide if given sufficient notice.

Opening Times are :

Monday to Friday: 12.00am - 2.30pm, 5.30pm - 11.00pm

Saturday: 12.00am - 11.00pm

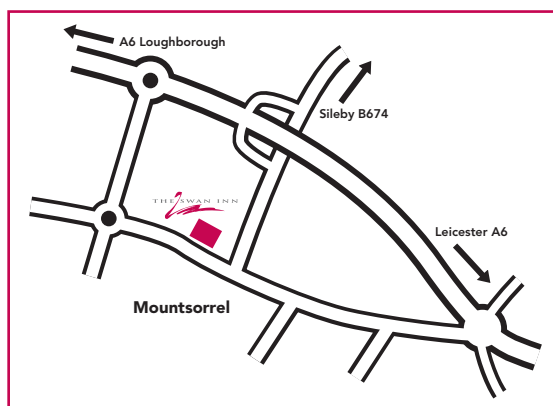

Sunday: 12.00am - 3.00pm, 7.00pm - 10.30pm
